House Concert

with the Peter Evans Trio

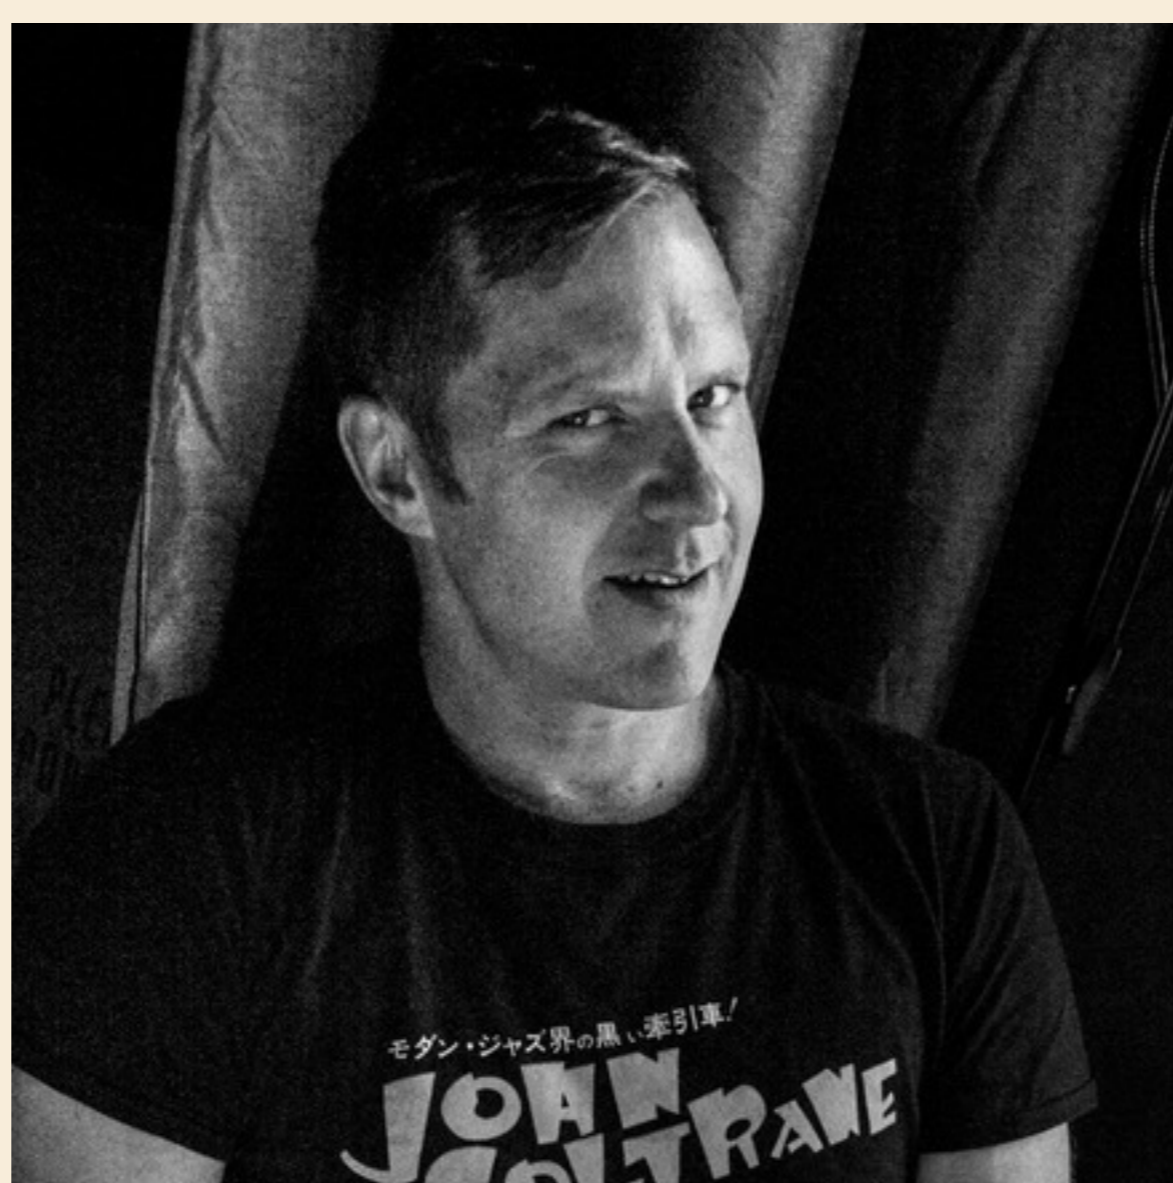

Saturday, 4 November 2023, 10 p.m.

Villa am Greisbachsee

Monheimer Str. 21, 40789 Monheim am Rhein
(RSVP)

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,
dear colleagues,

Preparations for The Prequel, the workshop edition of the Monheim Triennale, are in full swing. On 2 November we will publish the names of the artists who will be the focus of the festivals in 2024 and 2025.

The first musician we are pleased to announce is the New York trumpeter and composer Peter Evans. Together with Nick Jozwiak (bass) and Michael Ode (drums), he will give a house concert in Monheim.

Evans has been known to the Monheim Triennale audience at least since his guest appearance in Sofia Jernberg's signature project "Hymns and Laments". With his concert, Peter Evans will open our new "residence", the Villa am Greisbachsee, after a week-long rehearsal phase.

The formerly empty house between Monheim and Baumberg was built in the 1950s on the shores of the Greisbachsee and has recently been made available to the Monheim Triennale as a residence. In recent weeks, the house has been renovated and will be used in future as a residence for international artists.

Artistic director Reiner Michalke: "We are very happy to have the "Villa" as a venue for artistic work for the first time. The villa is an ideal place for accommodating musicians because it is close to the centre and secluded by the lake at the same time. We now have the opportunity to invite international guests for a longer period of time and thus contribute to the further development of Monheim am Rhein as a city of culture."

As space is limited, registration is required. For this purpose, we kindly ask you to send a short feedback to the following address: presse@monheim-triennale.de.

Admission to the event is free.

From our Friends:

Also on 4.11.2023, the Israeli bassist Avishai Cohen (with Guy Moskvich, piano, and Roni Kaspi, drums) will be a guest in Monheim.

Venue: Aula am Berliner Ring

Start: 8 p.m.

Organiser: Monheimer Kulturwerke GmbH
