

Monheim Triennale

The adventure begins June 22nd – 26th 2022

Monheim Triennale: The wild ride continues!

TWO WEEKS UNTIL THE FESTIVAL STARTS! Besides our 16 "signature" projects in the main program of the MONHEIM TRIENNALE, there will be an exciting additional program with smaller formations. We present some of them today. The entire program can be seen in the timetable, which will continue to be added to on an ongoing basis.

SOLO in the Old Town Church. On Friday, June 24, the keyboardist of the Stian Westerhus Trio, Ståle Storløkken will give one of his rare organ concerts in Monheim's Old Town Church. Among other things, he will present here pieces from his first pure solo album "The Haze of Sleeplessness," released in 2019.

DUOS in the bow of the festival boat. In the "club lounge" of our festival boat "RheinGalaxie" there will be several 15-minute concert encounters between the "signature" concerts. This is where New York-based German saxophonist Ingrid Laubrock meets Boston-based Canadian pianist Kris Davis, where Brooklyn-based musicians Amba Zoh and Shahzad Ismaily meet, as do Belgian-Nigrien electric bassist Farida Amadou and U.S. drummer Chris Corsano, and among many other musical dialogues, singer/songwriter Sam Amidon dialogues with Scottish bagpipe virtuoso Brìghde Chambeul.

TRIOS at Sojus 7. We are planning trio formations with Farida Amadou, Ethiopian-Swedish vocal artist Sofia Jernberg and Shahzad Ismaily and a guitar trio consisting of Ava Mendoza, Sam Amidon and Stian Westerhus, among others, in the event hall of the Monheim cultural center "Sojus 7", which is still under construction.
